

TITO CONSOLIDATES COMMUNISM; USES POLICE METHODS

Survey of Yugoslavian Conditions Shows Totalitarian Practice

OPPRESSIVE ACTS Diplomatic Sources Estimate Over 200,000 Political Prisoners

Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia, arch-foe of the Kremlin and the Cominform, is consolidating his own form of Communism within his Danubian Country by ruthless police methods that in some respects outstrip those of the Soviet police. The methods by which Tito is ensuring his hold on the Yugoslav people is described in the following article. It is the first in a series of four on "Tito's Red Riddle" by Kingsbury Smith, European General Manager of International News Service, who recently concluded a two-week on the spot survey of Yugoslav conditions and policies.

"Tito's Red Riddle" Chapter One

By Kingsbury Smith

European General Manager, INS PARIS, May 22 — (INS) — Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia is pursuing steadily today a policy of consolidating communism in his country by ruthless police state methods.

A two weeks' survey of conditions in Yugoslavia indicated clearly that despite Tito's break with Russia and his reliance on the West for economic survival, he is showing no signs of departing from totalitarian communism nor the oppressive measures required to enforce it.

The severity of these measures is reflected in the large number of men and women whom Tito's police find it necessary to keep in prisons or concentration camps in order to safeguard the stability of the regime.

Western diplomatic sources in Belgrade estimate that political prisoners in Yugoslavia at present total over 200,000, including at least 40,000 women.

Only a very small percentage of this number are believed to be pro-Russian or Soviet agents. The overwhelming majority are said to be people who have voiced opposition to the regime, who have refused or failed to comply with its dictatorial decrees, or so-called "bourgeois elements" who were merely suspected of being hostile to it.

These political prisoners also include former war-time collaborators with the Germans.

Most of the prisoners are used for forced labor. They can be seen, as this correspondent saw them while travelling across Yugoslavia, working in small groups on highway construction or in the fields under the eyes of armed guards.

A good many of them are believed to be peasants who refused to submit to collectivization or failed to deliver the crop quotas demanded by the government.

Collectivization has been so unpopular that Tito has had to slow up the program. Furthermore, he has shown reluctance to use the measures that were adopted by the Soviets in enforcing collectivization in Russia.

Tito told this correspondent: "Our cooperative (collective) farms have increased from 31 in 1945 to 1,000 today."

MINE EXPERT WITH DETECTOR TO TRY AND LOCATE BULLET WHICH KILLED HEAD OF CROYDON SAFE FOOD MARKET

HINT EARLY BREAK IN MURDER CASE

By International News Service PHILADELPHIA, May 22 — Police hinted a possible "early break" today in the holdup killing of David Sklar, Croydon, Bucks county food market manager, Allen A. Ostroff, the victim's brother-in-law, who was slugged by the killer, reportedly gave Philadelphia police a definite identification of a suspect from photographs of "known criminals" in city hall records. The holdup-slaying occurred last Friday night when Sklar, Ostroff and two other employees were walking towards a car after the market closed.

CROYDON, May 22 — A mine expert with a mine detector, is to be assigned here today in an effort to locate the bullet which caused instant death of David Sklar, 45, of 511 E. Wadsworth street, Philadelphia, in a hold-up at the Safe Food Market, here, Friday night.

Throughout Saturday police officials were busy at the area to the rear of the market, where the hold-up took place, attempting to recover the bullet. Using a method similar to "panning," the men dug into the earth in the area, then sifted carefully in an attempt to locate the bullet. They had no results.

It was announced by officials on Saturday that a .45 calibre Lugar revolver had been found near Bristol Pike, Saturday morning, at a spot where the two hold-up men are believed to have entered a get-away car.

Sklar was president of the Safe Food Market chain, and one of the owners.

The other victims of the hold-up were his brother-in-law, Allen Ostroff, 35, of 7949 Fayette street, Phila., who was beaten over the head by the thugs; and Peter Har-kins, 27, 2308 N. Bouvier street, and Harry Gouldy, 44, 4253 N. Marshall street, Philadelphia.

On Saturday, Ostroff spent some time in Phila., checking Rogues' Gallery photographs in an attempt to identify any as the two staging the hold-up.

Meanwhile an eight-state alarm was broadcast in an attempt to apprehend the hold-up pair and possibly an accomplice who is believed to have driven the get-away car.

Meanwhile, state police from Langhorne barracks; Bristol township Chief of Police Joseph Seader; Bucks County Detective Fred Kohler; Philadelphia police, and others, are leaving no stone unturned in an effort to apprehend the killers. Early Saturday a nine-millimeter shell was found at the scene.

The funeral of Mr. Sklar took place yesterday from a funeral home in Philadelphia, with burial in Roosevelt Cemetery, Bensalem township, Lincoln highway.

The family states that approximately 1,000 were attracted to the rites, with floral tokens numbering in the scores.

Rabbi Charles, of Germantown Center Synagogue, officiated at the rites. Pallbearers were: George Lafferman and Norbert Gross, brothers-in-law of Sklar; Harry and Simon Krames, his cousins; Milton

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Strong support for the French plan to pool France's heavy industry with that of Germany was voiced yesterday by Chancellor Adenauer of West Germany and French Foreign Minister Schuman in addressing their respective parties.

Dr. Adenauer, pledging every effort for the plan's success, called for a united Europe as a "third power" strong enough to "decide in favor of peace."

"There will be no strong Europe without Germany," he said, and "no Germany at all without Europe."

M. Schuman suggested that the coal-steel pool be placed under the Council of Europe. He said he did not expect Britain to oppose the plan.

The Foreign Ministers of the United States, Britain and France decided at their London conference, it was said at Lake Success, to do nothing to disturb the present situation in which the Nationalists continue to represent China in the United Nations and the Soviet bloc walks out in protest. The North Atlantic Council also discussed the situation, which was particularly disturbing to the smaller nations.

Leaders of Britain's Labor party adopted at a secret, two-day session Prime Minister Attlee's policy of moderation, with less emphasis upon further nationalization, as the program for the next election.

TOWARD AIR SUPREMACY

In the record peacetime military budget which the House has approved, there is an increase of $385,000,000 over the original budget. Nearly all of this is allocated to planes.

In stepping up the nation's air strength, Congress is taking into consideration the fact that Uncle Sam cannot hope to match the infantry strength of Russia. If the United States had the strength, it could not possibly be transported to the great Eurasian land mass which would be the probable scene of action in a third world war. Russia would gobble up those continents before U. S. forces could be landed in strength.

Land warfare is not for the U. S. in competition with Russia, which drives unpaid slaves into battle, equipping them at the cost of an insufferably low standard of living. Land warfare would bankrupt this country. But America can have the best air force in the world, a triggered gun aimed constantly at the Russian leaders and giving them pause until they come to the realization that there is nothing in the future for anybody except in a world of peaceful co-operation.

As Winston Churchill has said: "For good or ill, air mastery is today the supreme expression of military power. Fleets and armies, however necessary, must accept subordinate rank."

America, with an incomparable air force, will be in its most secure position of defense and at the peak of its power to avert war by daunting an aggressor.

FALLEN ARCHES?

The condition commonly known as "weak arches" may, if ignored, seriously disable a person. The height of the arch is not an indication of the degree of disability in such cases. It should be borne in mind that every important structure in the foot becomes damaged when this disorder occurs. Severe neglect of it, if a chiropodist sees this condition soon enough he will be able to keep it from reaching the serious stage. When the disorder is of long standing extensive treatment may be necessary to correct it.

Flat feet or weak feet are often brought on by improper use of the feet, undue strain, or certain systemic ailments. Typical symptoms are:

- 1—Shoes rapidly lose their shape.
- 2—Swelling of the feet and ankles.
- 3—Pain in feet, ankles, legs, knees, hip and back—usually getting more severe toward the end of the day.
- 4—A feeling of stiffness in the joints, feet and legs.
- 5—A tendency to toe out when standing or walking.
- 6—Excessive perspiration of the feet and fatigue of the entire body.

Home remedies which can be recommended for "weak foot" are appropriate foot exercises and proper shoes. If appliances are necessary (they frequently are not) a chiropodist should advise regarding the kind which will be best for each individual case.

WAGNER LOSES HEART-BREAKER FOR VOLTZ NINE

Earl Wagner lost a heart-breaking pitcher's battle yesterday afternoon on Memorial Park field as the Voltz-Texaco nine bowed to Roychester, 2-1, in a Tri-County League game. It was the Voltz-men's second loss of the circuit.

For eight innings, Wagner white-washed the 1949 champions. During this stretch he allowed but four hits and whiffed seven batters. It was the fifth inning before Roychester got a safe blow and until the sixth only one batter got as far as second.

But in the final frame, the visitors scored twice. Al Knauer walked and went to second on a passed ball. Lloyd Clifford hit to Heath and Knauer was rundown and put out.

"Bill" Hoff tripled to score Clifford and Hoff counted the winning run on a "squeeze" bunt by Bob Denver. No one covered first on the play, giving Denver a hit.

Voltz scored in the first inning on a walk to "Johnny" Rodgers, a stolen base, a sacrifice by Barney Ludwig and a wild pitch.

"Cal" Hagland held the gasmen to seven hits and had nine strikeouts to his credit. In the final inning he whiffed the side.

Voltz plays at Hilltop on Tuesday evening.

1945 to 6,500 in 1949 and we anticipate they will continue to grow. However, one must approach this problem carefully and thoughtfully.

"I do not think the peasants should be forced into these cooperative farms against their will, but the advantages of joining must be explained to them."

Peasants, however, assert that the government's policy as applied by local administrators is far from as lenient as Tito's words would imply.

While they are not shot on the spot or their villages burned to the ground, as happened with many thousands in Soviet Russia, strong pressure is brought to bear on them.

Those who refuse to join are given higher quotas of products which must be sold to the government at controlled prices far below the free market level. If the peasant fails to deliver the quota, he is fined heavily.

If he cannot pay the fine, his property is confiscated and not infrequently he is sent to a labor camp where the government gets the benefit of his services without paying him anything.

Strict control of the movements of the Yugoslavian people is maintained throughout the country. No Yugoslav citizen can leave Belgrade without a permit. Police posts are located on every road leading out of the city.

Yugoslavs with whom the writer talked—not associated with the government—expressed bitter opposition to the domestic policies of the regime. Resentment was based chiefly on the following grounds:

1—The low standard of living, and especially the food shortage;

2—Exhaustive pace at which the people are ceaselessly driven in the industrialization, reconstruction and agricultural development programs;

3—Compulsory nature of the so-called voluntary work brigades which includes the use of child labor and middle-aged men and women in reconstruction projects;

4—Terror of the secret police, who are everywhere and who can arrest a citizen without any warrant and hold him or her in jail indefinitely without charges;

5—Special privileges enjoyed by the bureaucrats of the system who have developed into a communist aristocracy so far apart from the people that Tito himself frequently finds it necessary to take them to task for it.

The only policy on which Tito appears to enjoy general popular support is in his continued defiance of Russia and the Soviet bloc, and his gradual orientation towards the West, economically at least.

United States policy in supporting Tito's regime economically is based on three main factors:

1—The desire to see the split in the Soviet bloc caused by Tito's defection maintained, both for political and strategic reasons;

2—Willingness to support a small country striving to maintain its independence in the face of aggressive threats from a great power like Russia;

3—Belief that Tito's nationalistic insistence on the right of the small socialist states to be masters in their own houses is causing serious trouble for the Soviets in the Eastern European satellite states.

American Ambassador George Allen has left Tito in no doubt about the American government's dislike of his methods. Allen told Tito that the United States was and would remain opposed to his police state system. He further told Tito that the United States did not believe that communism was the best way to raise the standard of living of the people.

(Tomorrow: Widespread incompetence in government administration.)

Burlington Man Is Sentenced To "Pen"

given a bad conduct discharge, pleaded guilty to stealing 27 boxes of tape from the Minnesota Mining Company's Bristol Branch mill, Green Lane, Bristol township, April 11. The defendant and his accomplice were scared away.

Because he will have to serve three years for violating his parole, prior to beginning Judge Keller's one to five year sentence, the Court refused to hand out a five to ten year stretch.

Robert L. O'Neill, Cornwells Heights plant watchman, testified that two men, one of whom was the defendant and was employed there at the time, were caught attempting to load the tape on a truck to be hauled away during the night. The tape was valued at $1 a roll or $12 a carton.

Chief County Detective Fred H. Kohler, Doylestown, testified that Conrey was in trouble for larceny of a car in 1946 and in 1947.

Chief of Bristol Township Police Joseph Seader and State Policemen from the Langhorne sub-station, testified that Conrey's accomplice is still in New Jersey being detained there.

Conrey pleaded guilty to burglary, larceny, receiving stolen goods and conspiracy to commit burglary.

"Donald Nelz worked at the plant three days with me when he suggested taking some tape. I said, 'We will never get away with it.' We used his truck," testified Conrey, who was discharged from the Navy in 1946 because he stole a car in New Jersey while in the service.

William McGoldrick, an uncle of the defendant, who served as his parole sponsor, attributed his nephew's delinquency to too much drink.

Harry Schwartz, 22, 602 Court C, Terrace No. 2, Bristol, a merchant marine seaman, who was described by the Court as a bully because of his fighting in public, was sentenced to serve not less than two months nor more than one year. He will be paroled at the expiration of two months and placed on probation for ten months.

"I think you need the supervision of the Court," said Judge Keller, who revoked a three months "straight" sentence which was handed down on Monday.

Leroy Pearson, Langhorne, who pleaded guilty to drunken driving and assault and battery by automobile, was sentenced to pay a fine of $200 and the costs of prosecution. The arrest was made April 1 in Morrisville and Vernon Roy Smith, King Farms worker, was injured. Officer Joseph M. Bresley made the arrest.

Joseph Hayworth, 34, Croydon, who pleaded guilty to stealing $150 from the Keystone Hotel, where he boarded March 26, was granted a parole yesterday after serving a minimum sentence of 30 days. He is on probation for 22 months.

Miss Margaret Wong and Michael Rice, Jr., Marry

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, May 22.—Two graduates of Bristol high school were united in matrimony at the hour of three on Saturday, in the rectory of St. Charles' R. C. Church, here. They are Miss Margaret Wong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Wong, Cornwells Heights, and Mr. Michael Rice, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rice, West Bristol. The Rev. John L. Nugent officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a creation of white, candlelight satin trimmed with Chantilly lace. The square neckline was edged with lace ruching, as were the tapered, leg-of-mutton sleeves. Also featured were a fitted bodice, button back, bouffant skirt trimmed with lace, and a rhinestone tiara with finger-ring veil of Belgian lace, and white Cuban heel slippers were also worn. Two strands of pearls adorned her neck and she carried a bouquet of white roses with an orchid center.

A sister of the bride, Mrs. Robert Clemmer, Bristol Terrace 11, was the matron of honor. She wore a gown of Nile green nylon marquisette over taffeta. It was styled with a square neckline trimmed with ruching, fitted bodice, detachable sleeves, long full skirt with puffed pick-up hemline trimmed with flowers. A matching sweetheart bonnet and gold sandals completed the costume. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses.

There were two bridesmaids, dressed in gowns styled identically, bonnets and slippers styled like those of the matron of honor. They were Mrs. Andrew Green, Orange, Va., wearing orchid; and Miss Marie Scott, Croydon, wearing yellow. They carried old-fashioned bouquets of mixed spring flowers.

Mr. James Ellis, West Bristol, served as best man. The ushers were a brother-in-law of the bride, Mr. Robert Clemmer; and Mr. Irvin Wong, Jr., the bride's brother.

Mrs. Wong, mother of the bride, selected a dress of sheer pink rayon print, navy blue hat, white gloves and matching accessories. She wore a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

Mrs. Rice, mother of the bridegroom, chose a dress of grey floral print, black hat, white gloves and accessories. A corsage of red rosebuds was worn.

For her wedding trip to Florida, the former Miss Wong selected a suit of grey and blue check shark-skin, white blouse and gloves, navy straw bonnet, gray snakeskin slippers and matching handbag. She wore the orchid from the wedding bouquet.

A reception took place in the hall of St. Thomas R. C. Church, Croydon, with 250 attending.

Mrs. Rice, Jr., is employed at Philco Corp., Croydon. Mr. Rice is employed by Rohm & Haas Co., Bristol. The newly-weds will reside at 628 Court C, Bristol Terrace II. The gift of the bride to her matron of honor was a marcasite bracelet; to the bridesmaids she presented marcasite miraculous medals. The bridegroom presented to the best man a wallet, and to the ushers cuff links and tie clasps.

Today's Quiet Moment

By Rev. John C. Kulp
Former Minister
Hulmeville Methodist Church

We offer unto thee, O Lord, our praises and thanksgivings for all thy mercies multiplied upon us, more than we can number and far greater than we can express. More especially do we praise thee for those spiritual blessings which thou hast revealed to us in the life of thy dear Son. Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which thou, O God, hast prepared for those that love thee. Give us grace to love thee more and more, till we come to thine everlasting kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

JEFFERSON PULLS GAME OUT OF FIRE

Jefferson A. C. pulled a game out of the fire yesterday as it nosed out the Franklin A. C. ten.

5-4, in an extra inning game on Memorial Park field. It was a Bristol Softball League contest.

Jefferson was trailing, 4-0, as it came up for its last turn at bat. Jack Spencer was pitching beautifully, allowing but three hits. But suddenly, bedlam broke loose and before the side was retired, Jefferson made six hits and with the help of an error had deadlocked the score at 4-4. Tony Cauti had a double and Harold Peltz a double during the rally.

The ultimate winners scored in the extra frame. Steve Clotti singled and went to second on a wild pitch. Pierandozzi struck out. "Vic" Cauti hit safely to right but Clotti was killed at the plate trying to score. Tony Cauti walked. Peltz scored. V. Cauti with a single. It was Peltz's third hit.

For Franklin, "Toby" Oriola and Tony Capello had two hits each.

FIREMEN CAPTURE SECOND BALL GAME

Behind the steady pitching of "Eddie" Kornichuck, the Fire Co. No. 1 softball team won its second straight win of the Bristol Softball League yesterday, beating the Luschno Brothers team of Tullytown, 5-3, on Leedom's field.

Kornichuck held the Tullytown lads to three hits, a single by "Al" Monti and doubles from the bats of Phil DiNatale and Rittler. The blows all came in the third inning to help account for the trio of Tullytown runs. Kornichuck had eight strikeouts.

Claude Dietzler, who won the pitching crown last season, was the mound loser. He was nicked for 10 hits with Alex Dixon, Nick Centonze.
